

West Window

Have you ever had your temper ruffled by smashing the cast iron locks, that held the side rails, when you were trying to set up that new bed?

If you had purchased one of our steel beds with malleable iron locks this would not have happened

You can see in this window a very fine display of steel beds in a variety of finishes—American Walnut, Ivory, Vernis Martin, Oxidized Copper, White, Blue and White, Green and White. All in nice smooth patterns that are so easy to take care of.

Good Furniture in the Home

Is not only a mark which defines the family in the minds of visitors—it really helps the family to live up to the definition it has given them. It works serenely and effectively through the years, helping to mold the character of all who live with it.

We are showing Bed Room pieces that are as beautiful as you will find this season, and the prices are very moderate, considering style and quality.

THE THEATRE

The Idlehour
Of special interest is the picture at the Idlehour Sunday when Mabel Normand returns to the screen after a two years absence, this time in a feature that is sure to please every one "Dodging a Million." You will remember Mabel Normand as the comedian who used to play with Fatty Arbuckle. The picture was directed by George Loane Tucker and Tom Moore is the leading man. The story is scrappy and full of interest and laughs.
Don't forget that the first of the Flagg comedies "Girls you know" is shown on Monday, this one entitled "The Bride". These comedies are new, clean and exceptionally good.
On Wednesday good old "Dong" Fairbanks is here in a dashing old fashioned thriller of western life with lots of laughter, "The Good Bad Man" with this is shown another Paramount Mack Sennett Comedy, "The Kitchen Maid" and those who have seen this comedy say it is a scream.
On Thursday the sweetest girl in pictures, Marguerite Clark is here in "The Seven Swans". A fairy story, but one that will be appreciated by grown-ups as well as the kiddies. It is fine from start to finish and there is so much clean stuff in it that you cannot afford to let it pass by. There will be a regular matinee at 2:30 and a special matinee for children at 3:30.

Liberty Theatre
That the public demand is for the best there is in filmdom is demonstrated by the interest in "Les Miserables", the big eight reel Pathe super-feature to be shown at the Liberty Theatre, Saturday, made from Victor Hugo's world famed masterpiece. This gripping story, adorned with the picturesque scenery of the old Paris and rural France, is a strong attraction. The first showing starts at 7 o'clock.
It is not essential to have read Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" in order to enjoy the photo version to be presented at the Liberty Theatre. The story is so perfectly enacted by the French artists, who are renowned pantomimists, that sub-titles are almost unnecessary. M. Henri Kraus, who possesses an unusually fine physique, gives a masterly interpretation of Jean Valjean, around whom the story is written, but every character in the photodrama is in the hands of an artist.

Forgot What He Needed

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now, I know!" "What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers. (33-4)
